At this rate, your

 GREAT, GREAT, GREAT
 GRANDDAUGHTERS
 might have fair pay.

Women still don't have fair pay. At the current rate of "progress," it will take until 2139 to get it. And unequal pay isn't the only problem women face. Devote two minutes or two years to the issues you care about most: violence against women, sexual assault in the military, fair pay, work-life balance, or access to health care.

"IT'S EASY TO ACHIEVE SOMETHING, but it is hard to consistently maintain doing it alone. We need the help of other people to achieve a common goal."
 —Edna, AAUW member

AAUW programs like Elect Her and our annual college leadership conference encourage women to dream big and aim for roles in student government, boardrooms, Congress, and the White House.

ADVOCACY

LEADERSHIP

"AAUW GAVE US A REALISTIC WAY to accomplish our dreams. ... It was encouraging, refreshing, and exactly what I needed to hear. The next week, I decided to run for freshman class board vice president."
 — Allyson, AAUW Elect Her alumna

Two hundred years ago, it was widely believed that education was harmful to a woman's health. We've long since disproved that theory with our first AAUW research report, but there's much more to do. AAUW gives millions of dollars every year to help women publish their own revolutionary discoveries, fight sexism on campus, and even cure cancer. Be a part of history in the making.

EDUCATION

THE ISSUES

WORKPLACE

There are too few women in the highest-paying fields and too few resources for them once they get there. We need a workplace culture change. Use AAUW's research and online tools to advocate for work-life balance, urge members of Congress to protect fair pay, or teach recent grads to negotiate their first salaries.

AAUW HAS PROVIDED MORE THAN $100 MILLION TO 12,000 WOMEN AND PROJECTS

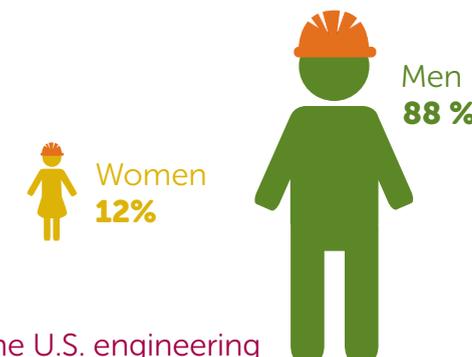

From all 50 states

And more than 140 countries

We're right in your backyard—and around the world. Each year we're adding more local branches, student organizations, STEM camps for girls, and leadership workshops for women at all ages and stages of life. And you can also join our thriving online village on Facebook, Twitter, and www.aauw.org!

"EVER SINCE I JOINED ... I have been on a wonderful ride: exploring new ideas, challenging myself to do things I haven't done before like writing op-eds and teaching college students why voting is so important, and always, always meeting and working with a group of fantastic women."
 —Geri, AAUW member

The U.S. engineering workforce is predominantly male.

"I AM BETTY DUKES, and my voice has been heard, but I am not the only Betty Dukes in this country. There are many, many more, and they need to let their voices be heard."
 —AAUW-supported plaintiff in Wal-Mart lawsuit

WHY AAUW?

Our mission: Empower all women and girls.

It's a big, bold goal—which means there are a whole lot of opportunities for you to take action.

Take up the issue that's closest to your heart, and we'll connect you with the people, programs, and resources you need to make a difference in the lives of women and girls.

WHY WOMEN?

At AAUW, we've found that the answer to the world's greatest problems lies in empowering women and girls.

From grade school through retirement, from the classroom to the boardroom, women and girls have a mountain of challenges to overcome. That's where we come in. For more than a century, women and men have been drawn to AAUW as a space to make real change.

WHY YOU?

Your voice and your ideas are powerful. Maybe you'd like to work with a math and science camp for girls, or empower local college women to be leaders, or help a woman in your community get paid what she's worth.

We know you're balancing a busy life. That's why AAUW membership is simple; there are no time commitments, so you can be as involved as you want to be.

It only takes one voice to start making a change—and imagine how much stronger that voice grows with 170,000 friends!

We empower women. You can help. Join us.
